ARTICLE 2 – Purpose and Philosophy

2.1 Purpose

The purpose of the EEANA Service Committee shall be to support the needs of the EEANA groups, to serve as a link between these groups and the Tri-State Regional Service Committee of NA (TSRSCNA) and NA World Services (NAWS), and to foster unity. For the purpose of these guidelines, the term “Narcotics Anonymous Group” shall be defined as stated in the Guide to Local Services handbook.

2.2 Philosophy

EEANA through mindful planning and service will create an atmosphere that makes service attractive. We plan to facilitate this through a loving and caring service structure that focuses on serving the groups, providing workshops, and streamlining business, always keeping the spiritual principles, traditions, and concepts in mind and at the forefront of all business conducted. Selfless service ensures this area will provide unity now and for “the unseen addict” in years to come.

ARTICLE 3 – Functions and Responsibilities

- A. Directly responsible to the groups.
- B. Provide support, information, and resources.
- C. Ensure the accountability of its subcommittees and trusted servants to the groups.
- D. Hold an annual Learning Day.
- E. Link between the groups, TSRSCNA, and NAWS.
- F. Foster unity amongst its member groups.

ARTICLE 4 – Participants

4.1 EEANA Participants

This Area Service Committee shall have two types of participants: voting members and non-voting members. No NA member shall hold more than one membership in a class or combination, thereof.

4.2 Voting Participants

Voting participants of EEANA shall be Group Service Representatives (GSR) or in the GSR’s absence the GSR Alternate or representative assigned by the groups within the East End Area. For the purpose of these guidelines, the terms “Group Service Representative” and “Group Service Representative Alternate” shall be defined as stated in the Guide to Local Services. The Chairperson of EEANA may only vote to resolve a tie. Voting members must be present at the ASC to vote.

4.3 Non-Voting Participants

Non-voting participants of EEANA shall be any NA member, the trusted servants of EEANA or any subcommittee chairperson not assigned voting rights. Any NA member may introduce motions and participate in debate and discussion. All motions must be seconded by a GSR.

ARTICLE 5 – Trusted Servants

5.1 Trusted Servants

The trusted servants of EEANA are:

1. Chairperson
2. Vice Chairperson
3. Regional Committee Member
4. Regional Committee Member Alternate
5. Policy & Administration Chairperson
6. Policy & Administration Vice Chairperson
7. Treasurer
8. Vice Treasurer
9. Area Board Representative
10. Area Board Representative Alternate
11. Secretary
12. Vice Secretary
13. Hospitals & Institutions Chairperson
14. Hospitals & Institutions Vice Chairperson
15. Public Relations Chairperson
16. Public Relations Vice Chairperson

5.2 Nominations, Elections, Terms and Eligibility

Notification of EEANA open positions shall be made one month in advance of the scheduled election for that position. Positions that are vacant during the term should be listed on the agenda immediately upon the vacancy. Establishment of new standing subcommittee positions are listed on the agenda immediately following the establishment of the subcommittee. All positions should remain in the agenda until filled. The trusted servant assumes the position in the month following the election. If there is only one nominee, election is by simple majority.

5.2.1 Nomination and Election Procedures

- A. All nominations for EEANA trusted servant positions must be made by the nominee's homegroup GSR or in the GSR's absence the GSR Alternate or representative assigned by the group. If no one from the group is present at the ASC meeting, the nomination must be submitted in writing. Vice Chairs and Alternates get automatic nominations from subcommittees. A GSR must second all nominations. Trusted Servant qualifications, duties, and responsibilities for the position will be read aloud to the nominee before the election is held.
- B. The nominee states their qualifications.
- C. Questions and answers
- D. The nominee leaves the room. Participants discuss the nominee and their qualifications for the position.
- E. Vote is called.
- F. When more than two nominees are present for the same position, the one having the fewest votes is removed from contention. Another vote is then taken. The nominee with the highest vote count is elected.

5.2.2 Terms

Elections to be held in May - terms to run from June 1st until May 31st for the following positions:

1. Chairperson
2. Vice Chairperson

3. Secretary
4. Vice Secretary
5. Treasurer
6. Vice Treasurer
7. Regional Committee Member
8. Regional Committee Member Alternate
9. Area Board Representative
10. Area Board Representative Alternate

Elections to be held in November - terms to run from December 1st until November 30th for the following positions:

1. Policy and Administration Chairperson
2. Policy and Administration Vice Chairperson
3. Public Relations Chairperson
4. Public Relations Vice Chairperson
5. Hospitals and Institutions Chairperson
6. Hospitals and Institutions Vice Chairperson

5.2.3 Eligibility

No trusted servant of EEANA shall hold more than one elected area position at a time. No trusted servant shall be eligible to serve more than two full terms consecutively in the same position. Trusted Servants who are able to fulfill their duties remotely (outside of the geographic area) are: Secretary, Vice Secretary, P&A Chair, Vice P&A Chair, ABR and Alternate ABR.

5.3 Attendance

- A. Attendance policy is based on complete meetings.
- B. All elected Trusted Servants are required to attend the ASC meetings.
- C. The following are required to attend the Policy and Administration meetings:
 1. P&A Chairperson
 2. P&A Vice Chairperson
 3. Secretary
 4. Area Chairperson
 5. Area Vice Chairperson
- D. All Trusted Servants are encouraged to attend all Policy and Administration meetings.
- E. The RCM and the RCM Alternate are required to attend all Tri-State Regional Service Committee of Narcotics Anonymous meetings.
- F. The Area Board Representative is required to attend all Tri-State Regional Service Office Inc. Board of Directors meetings.
- G. All EEANA subcommittee chairpersons are required to attend the regular monthly meetings of their respective subcommittees.
- H. The PR Chair and H&I Chair are required to attend the regular monthly meeting of the respective Regional sub-committee meetings.
- I. If a group is absent from the ASC for two consecutive months, that group is not counted in quorum for the following ASC meeting (see Article 9 Quorum, page 22). Quorum will never drop below 20% of groups (rounded up).

5.4 Removal of Trusted Servants

5.4.1 Absence

If an EEANA Trusted Servant is absent from three consecutive ASC meetings, they will automatically be removed from their position.

5.4.2 Non-Compliance

An EEANA Trusted Servant will be removed from their position for non-compliance. A fifty-one percent (51%) vote of the GSR's is required for removal. Non-compliance includes, but is not limited to: attendance, loss of abstinence, and non-fulfillment of duties in their position.

5.4.3 Resignations

A Trusted Servant of EEANA may resign by providing notice to the EEANA Chairperson in advance of the upcoming regular EEANA meeting.

- D. Encouraged but not required to attend P&A

ARTICLE 6 – Financial

6.1 Checking Account

- A. The checking account will be in the name of EEANA.
- B. Trusted Servants who are signers are, in this order, Vice Chair, H&I Chair, PR Chair, H&I Vice Chair, PR Vice Chair. If these positions are not filled, a signer will be appointed by the Area Chair from Current Trusted Servants.
- C. No EEANA checks will be issued in amounts exceeding the account balance at the beginning of the ASC meeting.
- D. EEANA utilizes the Online Banking System for its checking account
- E. The Treasurer does not have access to Online Banking
- F. The signatories on the Checking account will have the Online Banking credentials

6.2 Paypal

- A. EEANA utilizes Paypal to accept contributions from groups and members.
- B. PayPal automatic transfer function will be set to transfer funds to the bank account daily.
- C. EEANA does not utilize Paypal to pay bills.
- D. The Treasurer can access Paypal to transfer funds to the checking account
- E. In addition to the Treasurer, the Chair will appoint another member to have the Paypal credentials

6.3 Transactions

- A. Expenditures will not be reimbursed without a receipt. Receipts must be submitted within one month of the expense.
- B. Any member handling money at an EEANA event must have at least one year clean.
- C. All transactions, including advances, require receipts to be given to the ASC Treasurer at the next area service meeting or the person becomes financially responsible.
- D. All funds received to be deposited within 10 business days.

6.4 Budget

6.4.1 Monthly Budget

Monthly budgets are estimated by the annual budget divided by twelve. Subcommittees must only submit additional funding requests to the groups when the total annual budget will be exceeded, not any monthly estimate. The annual budget includes the following:

- A. P&A: $600: This budget is for estimated costs of doing ASC business including GSR toolkits, copier expenses, and any additional miscellaneous administrative expenses.
- B. PR: $300: This budget is for estimated costs of doing ASC business including EEANA website web hosting and domain registration costs.
- C. H&I: $1,800 (not more than 200 in a month)
- D. Learning Day: $400
- E. RCM and/or Alt. RCM Travel to a Learning Conference (such as MARLCNA): $800

For example: If a subcommittee has an approved annual budget of $600, the monthly estimated budget will be $50. If in one month no money is spent and the next $100 is spent, the subcommittee has not exceeded its budget. If the subcommittee has expended, in total, more than $600 prior to the end of the year, they must submit a supplemental funding request to the groups for approval prior to spending any more funds.

6.4.2 Prudent Reserve

Establish and maintain a prudent reserve that equals two months operating expenses.

A two thirds vote is required to incur expenses that decrease the prudent reserve below two months operating expenses.

6.4.3 Donations

Donations to Region and World: As part of their monthly report to the ASC, the treasurer (or a trusted servant who is acting in that capacity) shall make recommendations regarding donations based on the prudent reserve and knowledge of any upcoming expenses. If no voting member of the ASC objects to this report, the donations shall be made in the following proportions: 60% of total donation to TSRSCNA and 40% of total donation to NAWS. If any objections exist, a vote of all present members will be called for on whether or not to make a donation for that month.

6.5 Audit

- A. A financial audit will be conducted in two cases: 1.) annually in May and 2.) anytime there is a change in Treasurer.
- B. A financial audit requires at least two members: the outgoing Treasurer, the incoming Treasurer, and an NA member with treasurer or financial experience.
- C. A special audit may be conducted by the P&A subcommittee with 24 hour notice to the Treasurer.

6.6 Misappropriation of funds

Any member who is liable for misappropriation of funds while serving in any ASC position will:

- A. Be automatically removed.
- B. Be given the opportunity to enter into a promissory agreement for repayment of funds within a designated time frame.
- C. If the promissory agreement is not fulfilled within agreed time frame, the area must vote on whether or not to press charges. The decision to press charges must pass with a 2/3 majority. If the decision to press charges is made, the P&A Chair, or a Trusted Servant appointed by the P&A Chair will be responsible for filing charges.

6.7 Bad Checks

- A. Any group or person presenting a check returned for insufficient funds, or any other reason, must pay the amount due plus any associated fees by money order or cashier's check within 30 days of being notified.
- B. EEANA will not accept checks for a period of one year from the group or individual named on a check that was returned by the bank.

ARTICLE 7 – Amendment of Guidelines

The EEANA Policy may only be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of GSR's at an EEANA meeting.

ARTICLE 8 – Quorum

Quorum for EEANA is defined as one fifth (20%) of active groups (rounded up).

An inactive group is defined as a group that has not attended an Area Service meeting in the previous 6 months.

E.g., If there are 21 groups in the area and 4 are inactive

$$(21-4) \times 0.20 = 3.4 \text{ rounded up} = 4$$

ARTICLE 9 – Policy and Administration Subcommittee

9.1 P&A Purpose

This Committee is responsible for updating these guidelines, major motions, rules of order, qualifications and duties, and sub-committee guidelines all of which must be updated in the EEANA Service Committee Guidelines. This committee will also be available to help with wording for motions and amendments and be a resource for Areas or sub-committees that are developing guidelines. This committee is also responsible to review wording on all motions and help the chairperson to ensure that conflicts between motions and traditions are kept at a minimum.

9.2 P&A Functions and Responsibilities

The P&A Subcommittee will:

- A. Be directly responsible to EEANA, its groups, and its members.
- B. Set the ASC meeting agenda.

- C. Be the parliamentary body using the 12 Steps, 12 Traditions, 12 Concepts, the group conscience process, and Robert's Rules of Order.
- D. Maintain EEANA's guidelines and archives.
- E. Develop, update, maintain and facilitate new GSR orientation as needed.
- F. Conduct an annual budget review in conjunction with the annual audit and update as needed to reflect realistic costs.

9.3 P&A Participants

The P&A Subcommittee shall have two types of participants: voting members and non-voting members.

9.3.1 Voting Participants

The voting members of the P&A Subcommittee shall consist of:

- A. The EEANA Chairperson, EEANA Vice Chairperson, P&A Vice Chairperson, EEANA Secretary.
- B. Group Service Representatives (GSRs) from the East End Area
